

Jan 2, 2015, Daily News

Friday, 02 January 2015

Last Updated Saturday, 03 January 2015

CES Preview: 5 TV and Tech Trends

Light Reading

Among them is Ericsson AB (Nasdaq: ERIC), which bolstered its TV and video business in 2013 with the acquisition of Microsoft's Mediaroom IPTV solution: The ...

Online offers free HD package to new TV customers

Telecompaper (subscription)

The ISP has also stopped the re-transmission of Russian TV channels '365 days' and 'Kukhnya TV' under its IPTV offer. Share on twitter Share on facebook ...

The Interview does decent online business over holidays

IPTV News

The Interview, Seth Rogen's dictator-killing comedy, and perhaps the most controversial film of all time (albeit for all the wrong reasons), has been doing steady ...

Skyworth to unveil glasses-free 3D TV at CES 2015

IPTV News

Global top ten TV maker Skyworth will debut a top-of-the-line 4K 65" Glasses-Free 3D display at the Consumer Electronics Show in Las Vegas next week.

Virgin Media adds more Sky HD channels

IPTV News

Virgin Media TV customers can now keep up with the latest news and sports updates from Sky in HD following today's launch of Sky News HD on channel 603 ... Mediaset set for global Spanish-language channel launch

Rapid tv news

With this move, Mediaset will become the third Spanish operator present in Latin American and the US across cable, satellite and IPTV platforms.

Samsung's new smart TVs to lessen Android reliance

IPTV News

Leading South Korean electronics manufacturer Samsung has revealed that all of its smart TVs in 2015 will come equipped with a new platform built around the ...

///