

Feb. 16, 2015, Daily News

Monday, 16 February 2015

Last Updated Tuesday, 17 February 2015

Sling TV to add EPIX Channels and VOD

IPTV News

Dish has announced a host of new channels and on-demand titles for its Sling TV streaming service. The influx is the result of an agreement with US satellite ...

HD tops SD in German DTH market

Broadband TV News

From the HD households, the largest part are DTH satellite households (10 million), followed by cable (6.6 million) and IPTV (1 million). The total number of HD ...

IPTV to drive growth of global pay-TV market

Indiantelevision.com

MUMBAI: The worldwide pay-TV market is expected to have grown five per cent in 2014, surpassing 924.4 million subscribers. "IPTV is expected to grow a ...

OTT Video, Mobile TV, VoWiFi and VoLTE Spell Renewed Quad ...

PCC Mobile Broadband

Telephony service providers have long bundled their service with fixed internet access via ADSL and later fiber broadband connectivity, and by delivering IPTV ...

Netflix names Australian partner in Fetch

IPTV News

TV Connect, London. IPTV service Fetch TV has been named as the first Australian pay-TV provider to integrate the Netflix subscription service into its offering.

Magyar Telekom hit by fine

Broadband TV News

In a statement, the regulator NMHH says that follows an investigation into the Hungarian incumbent's services, including cable TV, IPTV and DTH, in the period ...

Movistar TV introduces multi-device recordings

Telecompaper (subscription)

Telefonica has announced that all users of its premium IPTV service Movistar TV Total can now record programmes in the cloud via the Movistar Go app for ...