

March. 6, 2015, Daily News

Friday, 06 March 2015

Last Updated Saturday, 07 March 2015

Deutsche Telekom adds ARTE catch-up to IPTV Broadband TV News

ARTE plus 7 German telco Deutsche Telekom has integrated the catch-up service of European cultural channel ARTE into its domestic IPTV platform Entertain.

Three cooperatives select Pontis Technologies' IPTV solution Telecompaper (subscription)

Pontis Technologies announced that three Argentine cooperatives have launched IPTV services through the implementation of the firm's IPTV solution.

Netflix and DiCaprio form environmental alliance IPTV News

Leonardo DiCaprio will work with Netflix to identify and develop potential documentary projects, with a particular focus on environmental and conservation ...

Some 40% of Serbian population still lacks DTT box Telecompaper (subscription)

The ASO will affect an estimated 38 percent of the Serbian population, as the remainder subscribe to cable, DTH/satellite and IPTV. Share on twitter Share on ...

Stingray goes global with new app and logo IPTV News

Multiplatform music specialist Stingray is rolling out a new global brand identity and logo, coinciding with the launch of the all-new Stingray Music mobile app in ...

HD drives Movistar to claim fifth of Chilean pay-TV subs Rapid tv news

"We are thrilled by such important growth and aim to reach more homes thanks to an extensive offer which includes interactive TV, IPTV, direct-to-home (DTH), ...

LAOLA1.tv premium OTT opts for Octoshape for delivery Rapid tv news

As a result of integration with Infinite HD's patented stream acceleration technologies for OTT IPTV, says Octoshape, LAOLA1.tv will be able to provide HD ...