

March. 16, 2015, Daily News

Monday, 16 March 2015

Last Updated Wednesday, 18 March 2015

Some 75% of French TV viewers watch cable, IPTV, satellite
Telecompaper (subscription)

Around 75 percent of French TV viewers watch TV by cable, IPTV or satellite, according to a new Mediamat/Thematik study from Mediametrie. Of France's

ARRIS router enables SK Broadband to launch 1Gbps broadband
Telecom Lead (registration) (blog)

SK Broadband serves 2.6 million customers with its IPTV service, growing by 189,000 customers in Q3 last year. The ARRIS E6000 CER has played an ...

KPN adds German IPTV package
Telecompaper (subscription)

Dutch operator KPN is adding a new German-language package to its IPTV service. The plan includes the channels Sat1, NDR, Pro Sieben, Kika, 3SAT, ...

TPG swoops up iiNet as the streaming wars get more complex
WhaTech

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) will be scrutinising the deal across a number of levels and IPTV competition is sure to be ...

TiVo snaps up remains of bankrupt Aereo
IPTV News

Advanced TV leader TiVo has received approval from a US Bankruptcy Court Judge to acquire certain assets from Aereo. Tom Rogers, President and CEO of ...

Without the TV show, Top Gear could be heading for the scrapyard
IPTV News-3 hours ago

Top Gear presenter Jeremy Clarkson's latest indiscretion – a “fracas”; with one of the show's producers – was not only a piece of industry gossip, but also the ...

BT Sport secures Premiership Rugby for 6 seasons
IPTV News

Aviva Premiership Rugby will be broadcast on BT Sport for the next six seasons in a new TV deal. The top flight of English club rugby will be live on BT Sport ...

Broadcom, Free deploy Android-based 4K STB
Rapid tv news

French broadband and IPTV service provider Free has turned to Broadcom to deploy a 4K/Ultra HD Android TV set-top box (STB). The new device is powered by ...

#