

March. 18, 2015, Daily News

Wednesday, 18 March 2015

Last Updated Thursday, 19 March 2015

Magyar Telekom sees multiscreen, IPTV boost

DigitalTVEurope.net

Almost half of Deutsche Telekom-owned Magyar Telekom's subscribers now take its IPTV service, with over 100,000 registering for its TV Go multiscreen service ...

Mario-Smart: Nintendo preparing new range of original game apps

IPTV News

Gaming experts Nintendo and DeNA have teamed up to develop and operate new game apps for smart devices. Both companies will develop and operate new ...

Sky Deutschland secures European Golf Tour

Broadband TV News

... satellite, the contract of which financial details have not been disclosed contains the exclusive internet, IPTV and mobile TV rights for Germany and Austria.

The future of over-the-air television in Canada

Lexology (registration)

... as something akin to a specialty service, such as Sportsnet, HISTORY or FX, which consumers can only access through a cable, IPTV or satellite subscription.

Telstra to acquire Globecast Australia

Advanced Television

Globecast Australia also provides DTH satellite transmission and IPTV managed services, IP streaming and encoding, Global Satellite Monitoring and Disaster ...

Ovum on HBO Now: "Building an OTT audience is very tough"

IPTV News

What does the future hold for IPTV? (Lessons learned from ... 4K at IBC? Slide image. Loading IPTV Tweets By Thomas Campbell · IPTV Newsletter sign up ...

MIIT: China's Mobile Subscriber Base Drops by 1 Mln in February ...

Marbridge Consulting

IPTV subscribers increased by 0.92 mln in February, bringing the total IPTV user base to 35.62 mln. Mobile internet subscribers saw a net increase of 3.26