

March. 25, 2015, Daily News

Wednesday, 25 March 2015

Last Updated Thursday, 26 March 2015

BT offers mobile customers free sport and £5 bundles

IPTV News

UK telco BT has announced its move back into the consumer mobile market by offering bundles of 4G data, minutes and texts for £5 a month to existing BT ...

SKB's fixed assets to help SK Telecom compete – Fitch

Mobile World Live

Moody's forecasts that SKT's revenue this year will continue to grow by low-single digit percentages, supported by the solid growth from its IPTV and corporate ...

Pay-TV subs to exceed 1.1 billion within 5 years

IPTV News

Cable and terrestrial TV markets had weaker growth rates in 2014 compared to satellite and IPTV platforms. However, high definition (HD) penetration is ...

Entropic c.LINK1.1+ Access Solution to Deploy With Tianjin ...

Nasdaq

The technology enables the delivery of advanced IP-based broadband and interactive services, such as IPTV, IP VoD (video on demand), VoIP (voice over IP), ...

Astro Selects Thomson Video Networks Video Processing Solutions ...

Broadcasting & Cable

... DTH satellite TV, IPTV, and OTT platforms. Over the past six years, Astro has deployed 18 DTH transponders with Thomson Video Networks solutions and now ...

Canadian TV market sheds 65000 subscribers in 2014

Telecompaper (subscription)

The publicly traded IPTV providers (Bell, including Bell Aliant, and Telus) added an estimated 103,074 IPTV subscribers in the fourth quarter of 2014 and ...

Telstra to acquire Globecast Australia

Screen Africa (press release)

Globecast Australia also provides direct to home satellite transmission and IPTV managed services, IP streaming and encoding, global satellite monitoring and ...