

March. 27, 2015, Daily News

Friday, 27 March 2015

Last Updated Saturday, 28 March 2015

CenturyLink expands IPTV service in Denver

FierceTelecom

CenturyLink (NYSE: CTL) is moving forward with its plans to bring its Prism IPTV service to Denver residents after the City Council approved a 10-year video ...

Telenovela Channels Romanza+Africa and Telemundo Capture ...

Variety

With the migration to digital TV and the subsequent burgeoning of African broadcasters on satellite and more recently over IPTV – as the continent's broadband ...

Adobe: Only 12.5 percent of pay-TV subscribers are 'active TV ...

FierceCable

... providers has increased markedly over the last two years, only 12.5 percent of cable, satellite and IPTV customers regularly use TV Everywhere services.

HBO turns to VICE for daily OTT newscast

IPTV News

VICE Media and HBO have announced a major content deal involving the launch of a daily VICE newscast as well as more weekly programming hours of VICE's ...

Twitter releases new video sharing app

IPTV News

Twitter has unveiled a new Periscope app that allows users to share and experience live video from their mobile. Twitter acquired the company in January.

NanoTech Signs Licensing Agreement with Paramount Pictures to ...

Digital Facility

With seven technology business units, focusing on 3D, Content, Media & IPTV, Mobile Apps, and Manufacturing, the company has a unique business model.

A sporting chance for all

The Australian

... rights because they have greater potential to deliver high-definition IPTV (internet protocol television) services over the National Broadband Network.

BBC announces 'Red Button+'

IPTV News

This April will see the BBC instigate what it calls the 'next step' in the evolution of its Red Button service on connected TVs. The original service was launched in ...