

April 20, 2015, Daily News

Monday, 20 April 2015

Last Updated Tuesday, 21 April 2015

Verizon FiOS Makes the First Real Move Toward A La Carte

Techzone360

The telco IPTV provider has launched the "Custom TV" offering, which offers a skinny TV package with 35 networks, including CNN, AMC, HGTV and the Food ...

Just 1/10 Britons 'could live without broadband'

IPTV News

Only one in ten UK broadband users say they could live without access to the internet, according to 2,000 respondents surveyed by broadband, TV and mobile ...

Windstream Adds IPTV Service to Web Bundle

Multichannel News

Pushing ahead with a plan announced last fall, Windstream has launched an Internet protocol-based pay TV service over fiber in Lincoln, Neb., where the ...

Undercover Productions: "4G will give Indian OTT a boost"

IPTV News

Few are doing more interesting things with internet TV than India-based mavericks Undercover Productions. Here we speak to Undercover founder & CEO ...

Ixonos, Maxicaster form strategic partnership

Telecompaper (subscription)

Finnish IPTV and multiscreen platform provider Maxicaster and technology company Ixonos formed a strategic partnership to deliver a managed OTT and ...

Telcos can raise profit by keeping it simple

The National

For example, one Middle East telecoms operator was interested in developing an internet protocol television (IPTV) offering. Because of the considerable ...

Bell's Fibe TV and FibreOP TV now serve 1 million Canadians

FierceTelecom

MONTRÉAL, April 17, 2015 /CNW Telbec/ - Bell today announced it now serves 1 million IPTV customers, making Fibe TV and FibreOP TV among the fastest ...