

April 22, 2015, Daily News

Wednesday, 22 April 2015

Last Updated Thursday, 23 April 2015

M:tel adds 10 new channels in Open IPTV package

Telecompaper (subscription)

Bosnian operator m:tel added 10 new TV channels from Serbian commercial broadcaster Pink to the Open IPTV package. The channels are Pink Super Kids ...

Buffering remains public enemy No 1 for OTT viewers

IPTV News

Internet video start failures are diminishing but other factors remain relatively unchanged, according to a new report from Conviva. Conviva's third annual Viewer ...

Altice aligns with Cisco for DOCSIS 3.1 and CCAP boost

IPTV News

Cisco has announced an agreement with Altice to deploy a next-generation converged cable access platform (CCAP) across its multi-country footprint, with the ...

Arris buying set-top rival Pace for $2.1B; shares +25.7% (ARRS)

Seeking Alpha

The combined company will have ~$8B/year in sales; Arris 2014 sales totaled $5.32B. Pace's product line includes cable, satellite, and IPTV set-tops; cable, ...

Optima Telekom launches promo for HBO packages

Telecompaper (subscription)

Croatian operator Optima Telekom has launched a promotional offer for the HBO, HBO+Cinemax and HBO Premium packages. New IPTV subscribers will only ...

ArmenTel expands area of its Beeline internet fiber optic service ...

Arka News Agency

Beeline IPTV service is available to subscribers to Beeline Internet. Current subscribers to Hi-line service may connect to Beeline Internet regardless of terms of ...

Green Bay Packers rolling out IPTV HD video solution for Lambeau ...

Digital Signage Today

According to the announcement, the team chose VITEC's IPTV solution for its cost-effective combination of low latency streaming video and flexible, ...