

April 23, 2015, Daily News

Thursday, 23 April 2015

Last Updated Friday, 24 April 2015

ARRIS to buy Pace, acquire FTTH line

LightWave Online

Pace is a major player in the set-top box and residential gateway market, with boxes for cable TV, IPTV, and satellite TV service provision. This last area in ...

Broadpeak Simplifies Video Content Delivery Management With ...

Broadcasting & Cable

"The complexity of video streaming systems increases in parallel with the multiplication of networks addressed, such as cable, IPTV, OTT, mobile, and the ...

Streaming more popular than linear in US, says report

IPTV News

Streaming has overtaken live programming as the viewing method-of-choice in the US, according to the ninth edition of the Deloitte "Digital Democracy Survey".

Global 4K display market to reach $52 billion in 2020

IPTV News

Strong promotion of 4K display resolutions from TV makers, display manufacturers and distribution channels has successfully increased consumer awareness ...

SKT vows to expand platform business

Korea Times

For the integrated media platform, it will provide IPTV and media services optimized for mobile. The company also said it will launch smart home and smart ...

Foxtel estimates Stan, Presto and Netflix spent $45m on marketing ...

MuMbrella

Smith told the audience during a panel discussion that also included SMI's Masters, Dan Sinfield from Carat and Felicity Emmett from ANZ, that the IPTV sector ...

TV Connect 2015: the evolution of TV services across Europe

IPTV News

Owen McLoughlin, IPTV Proposition Manager, Vodafone Ireland: Devices are fragmented and a seamless user experience across all screens is important.

YouTube's 10th birthday sets stage for TV Connect 2015

IPTV News

Today marks the 10 year anniversary of the first YouTube video upload, with the number of hours YouTube's billion-plus users spend watching content on the ... #