

May 5, 2015, Daily News

Tuesday, 05 May 2015

Last Updated Wednesday, 06 May 2015

IPTV service providers moving towards monopoly

UB Post

It has been a while since Ulaanbaatar residents have started complaining about how Internet Protocol Television (IPTV) service providers are reportedly leaving ...

Nielsen to provide Roku with video ad analytics

IPTV News

Nielsen and Roku, today announced a strategic agreement that will enable Nielsen to measure video advertising delivered to Roku streaming players and Roku ...

Telefónica O2 Czech Republic a.s.: Notice of the Board of Director's ...

The Wall Street Transcript

With the O2 TV the Company is also the largest IPTV service provider in the Czech Republic. The Company is present on the mobile market in Slovakia ince ...

TuYo: THE IPTV HISPANIC REVOLUTION! PREMIUM CONTENT ...

Multichannel News

tuyoTV.net), the first IPTV network owned and developed by award-winning Hispanic entertainment executives, will provide free, a la carte and pay-per-content ...

Romania TV subs up by 6% to 6.9 million at end of 2014

Telecompaper (subscription)

... format via satellite (DTH) networks, 40 percent receive TV programmes by means of cable networks, and 2 percent receive TV programmes through IPTV.

Chuck Robbins named as next Cisco CEO

IPTV News

Cisco today announced that its Board of Directors has appointed Chuck Robbins as Chief Executive Officer effective July 26, 2015. Robbins was also elected to ...

Belarusian broadband subscriber base rises by 40600 in Q1

Telecompaper (subscription)

The number of public Wi-Fi hotspots jumped by 21,000 to 323,500 across the country by 01 April. The IPTV subscriber base amounted to 1.06 million, up by ...