

May 6, 2015, Daily News

Wednesday, 06 May 2015

Last Updated Thursday, 07 May 2015

Swisscom gains IPTV customers

Broadband TV News

Swisscom Bern Köniz Businesspark Switzerland's national telco Swisscom has recorded 36,000 new customers for its IPTV platform Swisscom TV in Q1 2015.

Summer Content Launch Set for Hispanic IPTV Network TuYo

World Screen

LOS ANGELES: A July debut date has been set for TuYo, a new IPTV network geared toward the U.S. Hispanic community. The network will provide free, ...

KT offers Home service platform through Olleh TV

Korea Times

Users can watch Internet Protocol television (IPTV) while they are exercising, and check the information including exercise hours, distance, speed and ...

BBC World News HD launches in Austria

Broadband TV News

BBC World News HD will be distributed by A1 TV exclusively in Austria for three months. After this period, other cable and IPTV providers can offer the channel.

iPlayer on your holidays? EC looks to make it possible

IPTV News

The European Commission wants to make it possible for UK citizens to access catch-up services such as BBC's iPlayer while travelling elsewhere in ...

China to battle piracy with state-owned streaming service

IPTV News

The Chinese Government is to launch a state-owned video streaming service, TARA TV, in a bid to significantly reduce piracy within the region. The goal of the ...

Microsoft: "It's been around a long time."

IPTV News

IP&TV News: You're speaking at Apps World North America next week. How does Microsoft define and distinguish its position in the apps space?