

May 19, 2015, Daily News

Tuesday, 19 May 2015

Last Updated Wednesday, 20 May 2015

New Ultra HD Blu-ray spec and logo unveiled

IPTV News

The Blu-ray Disc Association (BDA) today announced completion of the Ultra HD Blu-ray specification and released the new logo that will delineate Ultra HD ...

Rostelecom offers promo on IPTV STBs

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian national operator Rostelecom has introduced a promotion of end-user devices for subscribers in the Far-East region. IPTV set-top boxes, as well as ...

BT: EE deal good for competition in UK

IPTV News

UK telco BT yesterday made its formal submission to the UK's Competition and Markets Authority, seeking approval for the proposed acquisition of EE. Central to ...

CenturyLink to battle Comcast with Prism TV in Minneapolis

FierceTelecom

The turf battle between IPTV provider CenturyLink (NYSE: CTL) and incumbent cable operator Comcast (NASDAQ: CMCSA) just got a bit bigger

Globo's International Signal in US & Canada to Be Available in HD

World Screen

There are currently six pay-TV channels around the world, with over 2.2 million subscribers. The signals are transmitted via satellite, cable, IPTV and OTT. Top.

Deutsche Telekom AG: Deutsche Telekom acquires remaining 49 ...

The Wall Street Transcript

The Group provides fixed network, mobile communications, Internet and IPTV products and services for consumers and ICT solutions for business customers ...

Netflix generation: Smart TVs to drive global web TV subscriptions to ...

Netimperative

In its latest research, Mobile & Online TV & Video: OTT, IPTV & Connected Markets 2015-2019, Juniper found that consumers will favour connected TVs as their