

May 21, 2015, Daily News

Thursday, 21 May 2015

Last Updated Friday, 22 May 2015

FCC Makes DBS Pay Per-Sub User Fee

Broadcasting & Cable

"This proposed fee schedule in Appendix C includes a new regulatory fee for DBS (a subcategory in the cable television and IPTV category) adopted in the ...

OTT Startup TuYo Aims for Hispanic Millennials

Multichannel News

... platform that delivers the best in unique bilingual content to a marketplace that has been waiting for this mix in one of the most-discussed platforms&mdash;&ndash; IPTV.&rdquo;.

Plateau, AT&T transaction completed

Plainview Daily Herald

... landline service, fiber-to-the-home and business and residential services such as advanced IPTV, ultra-fast Internet connections, and other IP-based services.

LG Uplus introduces local industry's first IPTV supporting Android ...

Whowired Korea

LG Uplus said on Thursday that it has introduced the local industry's first IPTV service which comes with Android's latest version Lollipop. The company said that ...

Sky Italia launches Online TV Box

Broadband TV News

Sky Italia has launched an OTT platform enabling viewers to access its premium service directly through the internet without the need for cable, satellite or IPTV.

Sky Italia unveils Sky Online streaming box

Telecompaper (subscription)

... dubbed Sky Online TV Box, allowing viewers to access its internet TV content without a subscription or access to cable, satellite or IPTV. The dedicated set-top ...

Spotify unveils video streaming plans

IPTV News

Music streaming service Spotify is adding video clips and audio shows for the first time. Spotify announced the addition, along with a number of other new ...