

May 27, 2015, Daily News

Wednesday, 27 May 2015

Last Updated Thursday, 28 May 2015

Research and Markets: The Worldwide IPTV Subscriber Market, 1Q ...

Business Wire (press release)

The global IPTV subscriber number totaled around 111 million in the fourth quarter of 2014, up 19% year-on-year. In the said quarter, South and East Asia had ...

BH Telecom adds Chinese channels to IPTV offer

Telecompaper (subscription)

Bosnian operator BH Telecom has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with Chinese national broadcaster CCTV allowing the transmission of three CCTV ...

Stingray Digital to raise $140M in IPO

CBC.ca

Montreal-based Stingray delivers high quality music and video content on a number of platforms including digital TV, IPTV, the internet, mobile devices and ...

Rostelecom expands fibre network in regions

Telecompaper (subscription)

Up to 100 Mbps broadband and over 200 IPTV channels are accessible for subscribers. The operator also expanded the coverage of its FTTB network in the ...

TiVo acquires Cubiware

Broadband TV News

... box (STB) and IPTV projects, which was for the Japanese market. In 2008, the two founded Cubiware, entering the market with middleware for the IPTV sector.

Cable mergers try to break power of content providers

Telecompaper (subscription)

In the US, this is mainly IPTV and satellite. While the numbers are still small, the risk of 'cord-cutting' is increasing. This results in lower network utilisation and a ...

TV Connect 2015 hailed as biggest and most global yet

IPTV News

As anyone who attended last month's TV Connect can already testify, the world's leading connected entertainment event arguably chalked up its best year yet.