

May 29, 2015, Daily News

Friday, 29 May 2015

Last Updated Friday, 29 May 2015

Argentina IPTV operators tap Amino

Rapid tv news

Catel, the association representing locally-focused IPTV operators in Argentina, has deployed Amino devices in the rollout of a second wave of pay-TV services ...

cCloud TV facing DCMA challenges but says its live cable TV ...

International Business Times UK

Users look for IPTV m3u8 links on Google and they test it using VLC player. If the links are good, they will share it using x.co, a Go Daddy link shortening service ...

Movistar Colombia unveils IPTV service

Telecompaper (subscription)

Colombian telecoms operator Movistar (Telefonica) has launched a new IPTV service, dubbed Movistar Video, with five live channels and over 1,600 ...

Arqiva: Rate of tech advance leaves TV industry feeling "powerless";

IPTV News

Change imposed by industry 'outsiders' is to blame for a "general sense of powerlessness"; felt by some of the TV industry's biggest players, according to a new ...

Google boosts Cast with new TV features

IPTV News

Google has announced a new range of developer tools to help mobile app and game developers bring new experiences to the TV. All of these APIs are ...

3 Reasons to Like AAPL For the Long Haul

Investorplace.com

But the networks would rather work with AAPL than against it, and they likely knew it was only a matter of time before Apple merged broadcast and IPTV.

OTT TV not yet a threat to standard TV subscriptions

Telecompaper (subscription)

Almost 30 percent also said they only watch the main channels included in the OTT offer, so don't need the bigger packages offered by cable and IPTV providers ...