

June 22, 2015, Daily News

Monday, 22 June 2015

Last Updated Tuesday, 23 June 2015

Online.nl launches on Chromecast

Broadband TV News

Dutch IPTV provider Online.nl, part of the M7 Group, has added Chromecast to its streaming video app. With the new version of its app, for both Android and iOS, ...

Rostelecom offers regional TV channel in Udmurtia

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian national operator Rostelecom has modified its IPTV offer in Udmurtia republic, adding the Udmurtia regional TV channel in the city of Izhevsk. The

Blinkbox Music assets up for sale

IPTV News

The intellectual property assets of digital music streaming platform brand, Blinkbox Music, are for sale. Blinkbox Music, incorporated in 2006, was acquired by ...

TOTOLINK launches its new wireless N100RE router

Technuter (blog)

The 150Mbps wireless router comes with the VLAN feature which supports IPTV function and provides television services along with internet surfing.

Manchester set to be 'blown away' by £3bn ultrafast rollout

IPTV News-

Manchester will be the first city to benefit from UK operator Virgin Media's ultrafast connectivity roll-out “Project Lightning”. This major expansion of ultrafast ...

Nine-tenths of connected Argentinians go for convergent offers

Rapid tv news

Although triple play offers are not common and quad play does not exist, Argentinians are choosing simple convergent offers for Internet and pay-TV services.

Telus invests $813M to connect 90 percent of Edmonton to FTTH ...

FierceTelecom

... for Telus' last mile network, particularly as it looks to compete with cable operators and BCE, which is also aggressively rolling out last mile fiber and IPTV.