

June 24, 2015, Daily News

Wednesday, 24 June 2015
Last Updated Thursday, 25 June 2015

Telekom Austria inks Bulgarian channel deal

Broadband TV News

The deal includes the availability of the channels for households and pay-TV operators in CEE, via Telekom Austria's cable, IPTV and DTH platforms, as well as ...

cCloud TV livestreams 500 IPTV channels online for free with a no ...

International Business Times UK

cCloud TV, an online service that enables users to stream IPTV channels for free, has now expanded to offer 500 channels, including premium cable channels.

ClearTV Media Launches Its Airport TV Network ClearVision at ...

GlobeNewswire (press release)

The Company's broadcasts are all delivered via IPTV (Internet Protocol Television) to Airports. ClearTV also operates an online, digital video syndication ...

Network spend outstrips client for hardware/software

IPTV News

Revenue growth from video infrastructure network hardware and software is far outstripping growth from client hardware and software, says new Q1 data from ...

Does Netflix really have one million Aussie subscribers?

CNET

The Foxtel Play IPTV service offers both on-demand content and regularly scheduled programming. It launched on July 30, 2013 as a way of getting the Foxtel ...

Netflix stock split seven-for-one

IPTV News

Netflix's Board of Directors has approved a seven-for-one stock split to be effected in the form of a stock dividend of six additional shares of common stock for ...

CenturyLink ends Comcast's monopoly in Minneapolis with launch ...

FierceTelecom

CenturyLink (NYSE: CTL) is officially now offering its Prism IPTV service in the Minneapolis market, ending incumbent video provider Comcast's (NASDAQ: ...