

July 4, 2015, Daily News

Saturday, 04 July 2015

Last Updated Sunday, 05 July 2015

Research and Markets: North American Residential Multichannel ...

Virtual-Strategy Magazine (press release) (registration) (blog)

In Canada, cable and satellite operators lost both subscribers and revenue in Q1 2015, compared to Q1 2014; while IPTV operators gained subscribers and ...

Netflix international sub figures leap 57%

IPTV News

Internet TV giant Netflix is on track for 69.9 million subs by year-end, according to Digital TV Research's new Global OTT TV & Video Forecasts report.

New study asks: 'Why do streamers love Netflix?'

IPTV News

A new iModerate study of 2,500 US consumers has not only established Netflix as the resounding favourite among subscription video on demand services (a ...

Analyst: STB market contracts for first time in 12 years

Advanced Television

Unlike cable and IPTV, the majority of satellite operators are not Internet service providers, so they cannot virtualise traditional STB functionality, such as DVR, ...

Futuresource predicts decline of DSLRs for pro video

IPTV News

According to Futuresource Consulting's Convergence in Pro Video report, European shipments of DSLRs into professional video applications dropped by 41% ...

Singtel Expands Channel Offering

World Screen

SINGAPORE: Singaporean IPTV platform Singtel TV has added 18 channels to its lineup, including the Discovery Networks Asia Pacific factual portfolio, ITV ...

EU: The end of roaming charges in June 2017

Balkans.com Business News

The rules will ensure that the quality of the open Internet access service will not be hampered by the provision of services such as IPTV or telemedicine which ...

Rostelecom expands fibre grids in Liski, Bekovo, Sakhzavod

Telecompaper (subscription)

It has provided GPON coverage to 173 residences there, supplying broadband at up to 200 Mbps and over 200 IPTV channels. The operator has also upgraded ...