

July 28, 2015, Daily News

Tuesday, 28 July 2015

Last Updated Wednesday, 29 July 2015

TV proves strong Orange segment

Broadband TV News

It will come as no surprise that France makes a major contribution, bringing 6.150 million IPTV and satellite subscribers out of the 7.435 million held at June 30, ... Linear encoder markets to decline 21% by 2020

IPTV News

The broadcast encoder markets are due to decline over the next five years, with revenues expected to decline by 21% in the distribution market and by 10% in ...

Digital TV Eastern Europe Forecasts

PR Newswire (press release)

Digital cable revenues will more than double between 2014 and 2020, with IPTV up by 56% and pay DTT up by 53%. However, satellite TV revenues (the main ...

ITV points to additional digital growth

IPTV News

UK commercial broadcaster ITV may have seen a dip in its viewing share, but it has delivered another period of double digit profit growth over the last six months ...

Research announced into the global conditional access system ...

WhaTech

Moreover the North America also accounts for the large number of internet protocol television (IPTV) users, which interns helping the adoption of a control ...

'Telstra TV' to integrate Netflix, Stan and Presto

iTWire

"We are already the network of choice for video for many customers around Australia," says Eric Kearley, Telstra's head of IPTV and Pay TV. "The demand for ...