

July 29, 2015, Daily News

Wednesday, 29 July 2015

Last Updated Thursday, 30 July 2015

KPN adds 64k IPTV customers

Broadband TV News

During the first half of the year, KPN added 64,000 IPTV customers resulting in a 28% market share of the digital TV market in the country, up from 25% at the ...

4K challenges for Kino Polska TV

Broadband TV News

It can also be viewed on a test basis on Vodafone Portugal's IPTV platform TV Net Voz. 4K Funbox UHD will be ad free and funded solely by subscriptions.

Telekom Austria buys Bulgarian cableco

Total Telecom

More recently, Telekom Austria bought Amis, a fixed-line telephony, broadband and IPTV service provider in Slovenia and Croatia. That purchase will enable it ...

Bulgaria's Mtel and Amdocs Extend and Expand Multi-Year ...

IT News Online

One of the largest affiliates in the Telekom Austria Group, Mtel is Bulgaria's leading mobile service provider and also offers fixed, broadband Internet and IPTV ...

Deutsche Telekom Selects Boingo for Global Wi-Fi Roaming

Digital Journal

The Group provides fixed network, mobile communications, Internet and IPTV products and services for consumers and ICT solutions for business customers ...

100 million Verizon customers get HBO NOW accesss

IPTV News

HBO NOW, HBO's internet-only service, is heading for all of Verizon's digital platforms, including to more than 100 million Verizon Wireless customers and other ...

18% rise in Sky profits as customer numbers surge

TV Newsroom-11 hours ago

NOW TV which offers Sky Movies, Sky Sports and core Sky TV channels over IPTV with any broadband connection has always been a tough beast to find out ...