

Aug. 6, 2015, Daily News

Thursday, 06 August 2015

Last Updated Friday, 07 August 2015

Deutsche Telekom reaches 2.6 million IPTV customers

Broadband TV News

DeutscheTelekomLogoBuilding Germany's national telco has won 62,000 new customers for its IPTV platform Entertain in Q2 2015 which now reaches a total of ...

Positive trends continue at Magyar Telekom

Broadband TV News

Magyar Telekom points out that IPTV and satellite TV revenues increased in Q2 2015 compared to the same quarter last year due to higher ARPU and RPC.

BCE Beats Q2 Earnings and Revenues on Wireless Strength

Zacks.com

As of Jun 30, 2015, BCE had 2,674,796 TV subscribers, up 4.4% (including 1,040,791 IPTV customers, an increase of 32.9%) and 3,316,351

Moldtelecom offers 50% discount to new internet customers

Telecompaper (subscription)

whereby customers who sign a subscription for an 'Internet Fix' or 'Internet Fix with IPTV' tariff plan receive a 50 percent over a period of 6 months.

Freesat on-demand service grows 200%

IPTV News

Free UK satellite TV service Freesat has announced a strong take-up of Freetime, its connected TV service, which has seen a 200% year-on-year increase in ...

Windstream to bring 50 Mbps speeds to nearly 1M new locations

FierceTelecom

With the VDSL2 network in place, the service provider launched its "Kinetic" IPTV service in its Nebraska market in April and plans to extend it to other select ...

Fancy 10 Gbps home broadband? Broadcom's built the guts of it

The Register

Based on the company's BCM55030 system-on-a-chip, the gateway implements video-on-demand, HD IPTV, and VoIP over high-speed broadband networks.

#