

Aug. 18, 2015, Daily News

Tuesday, 18 August 2015

Last Updated Wednesday, 19 August 2015

CenturyLink lights Prism IPTV service over its Seattle-area 1 Gbps ...

FierceTelecom

CenturyLink (NYSE: CTL) has officially launched its Prism IPTV service in Seattle, Wash., complementing its ongoing 1 Gbps FTTH network buildout. Prism TV is ...

Ultra high-speed Internet might be coming to your neighbourhood

Vancity Buzz

... offers a Gigabit Business Internet service for $269 per month, along with hosted PBX services and is soon to launch a next generation IPTV Television service.

Deutsche Telekom to Reveal New Business Opportunities for the ...

PR Newswire UK (press release)

The Group provides fixed network, mobile communications, Internet and IPTV products and services for consumers, and ICT solutions for business customers ...

Online age ratings rolled out for music vids

IPTV News

The UK Government is working with the music industry, BBFC and digital service providers like Vevo and YouTube to take further action to protect children from ...

Teracue Launches New ENC-400 H.264 Dual Channel Video ...

openPR (press release)

Teracue eyevis GmbH manufactures professional IPTV, IP-video and streaming solutions. The main products are for encoding, decoding and managing video ... New television channel to offer viewers shares via crowdfunding site

The Guardian

It will launch at noon on Thursday 27 August on Freeview channel 39, Sky channel 663, Freesat channel 822 and also via IPTV. It will air 24 hours a day, seven ...

Dish TV unveils VOD movie service DishFlix

Indiantelevision.com

NEW DELHI: Dish TV has launched a video on demand service that – unlike IPTV – works without the Internet and offers a choice of fifty English and Hindi films ...