

Aug. 29, 2015, Daily News

Saturday, 29 August 2015

Last Updated Saturday, 29 August 2015

Thomson Video Networks to Demonstrate UHD Broadcasting of ...

Multichannel News

... broadcasters to deliver superior video quality at the highest density and lowest bandwidth for contribution, terrestrial, satellite, cable, IPTV, and OTT services.

Onlime launches new double-play pack, digital TV promo

Telecompaper (subscription)

The tariff line includes unlimited fixed broadband services at 5-100 Mbps, as well as Your Starting digital or IPTV package for a monthly subscription from RUB ...

DISH and Sinclair finalise retransmission deal

IPTV News

DISH Network and Sinclair Broadcast Group, have reached an agreement in principle that will form the basis of a long-term retransmission consent agreement ...

Gogo gets FAA approval for 70 Mbps in-flight Wi-Fi service, but most ...

FierceWireless

Latin American airline company GOL said it will install Gogo's 2Ku services, including the company's new IPTV solution -- Gogo TV -- on all its 140 aircraft.

3SS selects Metrological to deliver next gen TV Apps

IPTV News

Multiscreen software and solution vendor 3 Screen Solutions (3SS) has joined Metrological's preferred content partnership programme to develop new ...

Telekom Malaysia adds Boomerang TV channel to offer

Telecompaper (subscription)

... Turner Broadcasting System Asia Pacific to officially launch Turner's Boomerang TV channel for children via TM's IPTV service HyppTV. The channel has been ...

Telekom Austria gets green light for takeover of Amis

Telecompaper (subscription)

Amis has around 63,000 IPTV customers, making it the third largest provider in Slovenia with a 13.7 percent market share. In the IP telephony segment it has a ...