

Sept. 16, 2015, Daily News

Wednesday, 16 September 2015

Last Updated Wednesday, 16 September 2015

Marvell powers new Swisscom UHD IPTV set-top box

Telecompaper (subscription)

Marvell has expanded its partnership with Swisscom to launch a new range of Ultra HD Android IPTV set-top boxes powered by Marvell's Armada 1500 Ultra ...

Sky completes full acquisition of Sky-D

IPTV News

With 100% ownership of Sky Deutschland, Sky says it is able to take full advantage of future growth opportunities across each of its five territories, and share ...

How is Netflix performing after a year in France?

Screen International

"We're extremely cautious about these estimates which ignore the diversity of audiovisual distribution in France, particularly on ipTV, and the VPN effect," he said ...

IBC 2015: Samsung frees Movistar+ from STBs

Rapid tv news

During IBC 2015, Samsung Electronics announced a partnership with Telefónica to promote the Movistar+ IPTV service which doesn't require a set-top box ...

Apple looks to shake up media landscape with new TV box

Telecompaper (subscription)

Cable and IPTV providers could face difficulties if major broadcasters introduce apps for Apple TV. Viewers can then use the touch pad on the new remote ...

KT Music takes on Apple, Google

The Korea Herald

Aiming to offer users a seamless music streaming service, Genie allows users to listen to music through all devices including IPTV and wearables. Users can ...

Quickflix chases the Chinese content dragon

CSO Australia

The rapid competition gripping the Australian IPTV market has pushed one of the industry's local pioneers to diversify with expansion into China. Quickflix, one of ...

#