

Oct. 2, 2015, Daily News

Friday, 02 October 2015

Last Updated Friday, 02 October 2015

Wi-Fi provider Boingo goes 'skinny' with new Core IPTV service for ...

FierceWireless

Wi-Fi vendor Boingo recently launched a new $19.95 per month "skinny" bundle of TV services for its military users that sports a handful of TV channels ...

Hi-speed Net, IPTV in your living room soon

News Today

Chennai: 'Home smart home' may be the new adage as Arasu Cable TV Corporation is gearing up to offer Internet Protocol Television (IPTV) along with ...

Ericsson MediaFirst Delivers Next Generation TV Experiences

Sports Video Group (blog)

Ericsson MediaFirst integrates industry-leading capabilities in Multiscreen IPTV, ABR delivery, content management and cloud DVR to provide consistent and ...

Atlant Telecom offers free internet pack to new customers

Telecompaper (subscription)

... anti-virus and cloud storage services. Subscribers in Minsk, Gomel and Mogilyov are also being offered IPTV services. The promotion is valid until 31 October.

Belden Raised to Hold at Zacks (BDC)

The Legacy

... which supplies production, supply, and connectivity systems for television transmission, cable, satellite and IPTV industries; Enterprise Connectivity Solutions, ...

Bharat Telecom to launch triple-play service in Rwanda

NexTV Africa & Middle East (registration)

... to the Home service to Mauritian households. Amongst other services, IPTV and video-on-demand will be introduced in Mauritius in the near future. Tagged.

AT&T adds Audience Network to line-up

Rapid tv news

... important for AT&T to grow its TV business, which lost 22,000 video customers in the second quarter — the first-ever subscriber loss for the telco's IPTV service ...