

Nov. 26, 2015, Daily News

Thursday, 26 November 2015

Last Updated Thursday, 26 November 2015

KPN adds Netflix to IPTV menu

Telecompaper (subscription)

KPN has started offering Netflix on its IPTV platform. The company announced in October that it would add the streaming service to the menu of its Interactive ...

Dubai Courts jails, fines illegal IPTV dealer

Trade Arabia

Dubai Courts has sentenced a dealer of illegal IPTV (Internet Protocol Television) services to a three-month jail-term and fined him Dh50,000 ($13,610).

TM's third quarter revenue boosted by voice and data services

TeleGeography

... MYR845 million, up 18.3% against the corresponding period of 2014, with the increase bolstered by upselling and turnover from the company's IPTV service.

Roundtable: How can we put the consumer at the heart of the IoT?

IPTV News

Gus Desbarats (Chairman, Alloy): IoT is more about services than things. The propositions are totally artificial experiences that won't become compelling by ...

Forget YTS/YIFY, Popcorn Time & Free Televisions Streaming ...

Yibada (English Edition)

A new report said the Free TV service is back online and raring to become "the future of IPTV," following months of self-imposed hiatus. Like Us on Facebook ...

HyppTV adds HyppInspirasi HD to IPTV platform

Telecompaper (subscription)

Telekom Malaysia's IPTV service HyppTV has launched the 'HyppInspirasi HD' channel. HyppInspirasi (formerly known as EC Inspirasi) was previously ...

Panasonic announces US line of 4K smart TVs

IPTV News

Panasonic has announced its first line of value-priced 4K Ultra HD Smart TVs for the US in time for the holidays. The new series of 4K Ultra HD Smart TVs will be ...