

Jan. 21, 2016, Daily News

Thursday, 21 January 2016

Last Updated Thursday, 21 January 2016

Vodafone Ireland launches IPTV service

Total Telecom

Vodafone Ireland on Thursday launched an IPTV service packing a host of high-end features, including a mobile app that lets customers stream content

Vodafone launches TV service in Ireland

Gadget

Vodafone TV is delivered through IPTV, i.e. via high-speed broadband. It is only available to consumers who have Vodafone Broadband speeds of at least ...

Eurobites: Vodafone Launches IPTV in Ireland

Light Reading

Vodafone Group plc (NYSE: VOD) has made its first foray into IPTV services in Ireland, launching packages that, after an initial discounted period, start at €70 ...

TalkTalk pays price for 2015 data hack

IPTV News

The provider saw its share of the home services market fall by 4.4 percentage points quarter on quarter in terms of new customers, only 1.4% of whom gave ...

Ericsson unveils 'Integrated Video Insights'

IPTV News

Ericsson is launching Integrated Video Insights – a data analysis toolkit to help media players aggregate and analyse large amounts of data derived from users, ...

Ovum identifies streaming trends from CES

IPTV News

Leading research firm Ovum has released a selection of top trends discernible from the show floor at CES in Las Vegas earlier this month. Chief among them, in ...

Windstream, Time Warner Cable vie to build fiber network in ...

FierceTelecom

The provider has already rolled out its Kinetic IPTV service in Lexington, and the city is one of five markets where Windstream is trialing its 1 Gbps FTTH service.