

Jan. 26, 2016, Daily News

Tuesday, 26 January 2016

Last Updated Wednesday, 27 January 2016

IPTV drives Czech telco growth

Broadband TV News

O2TV Czech Republic The Czech incumbent O2 ended 2015 with 202,000 subscribers to its digital TV service O2 TV, or 10% more than a year earlier.

Kevag Telekom selects M7 Deutschland's IPTV service

Broadband TV News

KEVAG Telekom German network operator Kevag Telekom will offer its customers the multiscreen IPTV platform from M7 Deutschland. The contract signed ...

Now combined, Amino and Entone target hybrid broadcast/IP and ...

Videonet

There is also a cost-effective IPTV client device, designed so operators can reduce HD costs by extending their reach over existing IP networks using HEVC ...

Korea Telecom selects Ericsson AVP 4000 encoders to transform ...

Multichannel News

As competition in the Korean video market intensifies, Korea Telecom (KT), the nation's largest IPTV operator, has chosen Ericsson's AVP 400 MPEG-4 HD ...

South American Pirates Transfer 789 Petabytes Per Year

TorrentFreak

NetNames also includes data for pirated live IPTV broadcasts, which adds another 82 petabytes. In total the South American piracy landscape generates 789 ...

Conklin-Intracom and Beehive Broadband Power TV Anywhere ...

Multichannel News

Beehive Broadband is also using Conklin-Intracom's platform to manage video services to hundreds of IPTV set top boxes located throughout the campus in ...

IBM acquires Ustream to boost cloud video services

IPTV News

Ustream streams live and on-demand video to about 80 million viewers per month for customers such as NASA, Samsung, Facebook, Nike and The Discovery ...