

Feb. 18, 2016, Daily News

Thursday, 18 February 2016

Last Updated Friday, 19 February 2016

IPTV reshapes the future of TV globally

CSO Australia

IPTV reshapes the future of TV globally. The UK is taking the global lead in IPTV and catch-up viewing according to a global report from UK regulator Ofcom.

SK Telecom Unveils Innovative Media Technologies at MWC 2016

PR Newswire (press release)

In particular, cable TV and IPTV service providers in Europe, China, Japan, and South East Asia are showing high interest in the solution. Already, Cyber Cloud ...

Rebirth of BBC Three is beginning of the end for TV and that's a ...

Inquirer

The point is that there is a huge demand for IPTV. The recent launch of Sky Q, which provides seamless viewing between rooms and mobile devices with a ...

Millicom International Cellular: Airtel, Tigo and Vodacom agree on ...

Business Wire (press release)

In India, the company's product offerings include 2G, 3G and 4G wireless services, mobile commerce, fixed line services, high speed DSL broadband, IPTV, DTH ...

Ericsson: The world of immersive TV and new realms of quality

IPTV News

The Consumer Electronics Show (CES) 2016 wrapped up just a few weeks ago, offering time and distance to look back and reflect on this year's show and the ...

Spark NZ reports NZ$158m net profit

ZDNet

Like Australian telco Optus' recent win in obtaining the English Premier League rights, Spark purchased 50 percent of IPTV provider Coliseum in December ...

Foxtel Is Putting Up A Huge Fight In The Netflix World

Gizmodo Australia

Their IPTV subscriber number, which includes Foxtel on T-Box, Bigpond movies and Foxtel Presto is also up 17.9%, from 190,000 to 224,000. They don't break ...