

Feb. 25, 2016, Daily News

Thursday, 25 February 2016

Last Updated Friday, 26 February 2016

Frontier leveraging existing FTTN to deliver IPTV to 7M homes

FierceCable

Frontier says it will leverage existing fiber-to-the-node (FTTN) network infrastructure to deliver IPTV services to the 7 million customers it will have across its ...

M-net Germany launches multiscreen IPTV platform

Broadband TV News

German telco M-net has commenced offering an IPTV package in addition to its internet, fixed-line and mobile telephony services. M-net TVplus contains more ...

Windstream Holdings (WIN) Anthony W. Thomas on Q4 2015 ...

Seeking Alpha

Good day, ladies and gentlemen, and welcome to the Windstream Q4 Earnings Conference Call. At this time all participants are in a listen-only mode. Later we ...

Magyar Telekom growth continues

Broadband TV News

The majority (497,662, up from 445,044 a year earlier) were IPTV, with the remainder DRTH (306,312, down from 306,627) and cable (156,118, down from ...

FTTH pays off for Deutsche Telekom

Broadband TV News

Deutsche Telekom German telco Deutsche Telekom has won further customers for its domestic IPTV platform Entertain through the rollout of its fibre-optic ...

Mixed fortunes for OTE and Telekom Romania

Broadband TV News

The latest results published by the Greek incumbent show that in its home market OTE TV ended 2015 with a combined total of 446,499 IPTV and satellite ...

Boingo Wireless Reports Record Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2015 ...

Business Wire (press release)

High-speed Wi-Fi and IPTV now covers 244,000 beds on 49 U.S. military bases. Boingo was named "Best Wi-Fi Network Operator" for the sixth time by Global ...