

March 17, 2016, Daily News

Thursday, 17 March 2016

Last Updated Friday, 18 March 2016

Freenet acquires stake in Swiss Sunrise

Broadband TV News

Its portfolio comprises mobile subscriptions, broadband internet, fixed-line telephony and IPTV. Christoph Vilanek, CEO of Freenet, and the company's CFO ...

Rostelecom to upgrade IPTV, OTT platform

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian national operator Rostelecom plans to upgrade its IPTV and OTT platform, reports Comnews.ru. The national operator has launched a procurement ...

Apple loses to OpenTV in streaming technology lawsuit

Inquirer

... as well as streaming and on-demand IP providers in a single package, offering video-on-demand, IPTV, DVB and home DLNA in a Linux-based HTML5 shell.

SES Increases Ultra-HD Content on Fleet with 4KUniverse

Satellite Today

“With the support of global satellite operator SES, our 4KUniverse content and channel will be available to millions of cable, [Internet Protocol Television] IPTV ...

KPN to broadcast first original production in December

Telecompaper (subscription)

KPN announced that its first original production, the TV series 'Brussel', will be shown on its KPN Presenteert channel over its IPTV and OTT services from ...

Netflix Inks Pact with Hong Kong's now TV

World Screen

... and OTT service provider now TV has signed a deal with Netflix to deliver the streaming giant's content in Hong Kong via all-in-one IPTV/OTT set-top boxes.

now TV inks Netflix partnership for Hong Kong

Rapid TV News

... provider now TV has entered into a partnership with subscription video-on-demand (SVOD) leader Netflix to provide the latter's content via all-in-one IPTV/OTT ...