

Sept. 7 2006 Daily News

Thursday, 07 September 2006

Latens to supply CA system for Smart Telecom IPTV service

Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten, Netherlands

Latens Systems, European provider of IPTV conditional access (CA), has signed a deal to supply the CA system for Irish telecom provider Smart Telecom's ...

Shanghai set for IPTV rollout

China Daily - China

... With a promotion launched this month Shanghai will become the world's first city with a full sized IPTV service using MPEG-4 Advanced Video Coding, a ...

Time Broadband achieves Asian landmark in IPTV

Indiantelevision.com - Andheri, Mumbai, India

... MTNL, providing services in Delhi and Mumbai, has associated with Time Broadband to provide IPTV at affordable rates to the telco's consumers. ...

IPTV to convert 48 million by 2010 - Gartner

Silicon.com - UK

The number of IPTV subscribers is set to hit 48.8 million worldwide in 2010, according to analyst house Gartner. Gartner expects ...

Protecting IPTV Infrastructure from Security Risks

Converge Network Digest - USA

... These new telco managed IPTV services should be clearly distinguished from Internet TV; the latter being the web-based download and streaming services like ...

IBC panel debates broadcast vs. broadband-based

EETimes.com - USA

... Carl Rijsbrack, vice president of marketing and communications-fixed solutions at Alcatel, agreed, adding, "IPTV is not about TV broadcast only." Built on voice ...

Maybach in IPTV ad first

Digital Bulletin - UK

DaimlerChrysler has broken new ground with what is believed to be the first interactive advertisement airing on IPTV network Now TV, for Daimler's luxury ...

HP and Intel open IPTV test centres for carriers

iTWire - Australia

HP and Intel have opened two IPTV test centres - one in Europe and one in the USA - to help carriers and broadband providers take advantage of the ...

BayanTel eyeing IPTV trials early next year

Manila Bulletin - Philippines

... Tunde Fafunwa, BayanTel chief executive consultant said, BayanTel will trial IPTV services as part of its participation at the GILAS Project. ...