

May 2, 2016, Daily News

Monday, 02 May 2016

Last Updated Monday, 02 May 2016

KPN in Q1: IPTV up; DTT down

Broadband TV News

The operator lost 88,000 during the past twelve months, or a loss of 21% of its DTT subscriber base. However, growth of the number of homes taking IPTV more ...

BCE acquires Manitoba Telecom for $2.5B, plans to expand 1 Gbps ...

FierceTelecom

By acquiring MTS, BCE will expand its internet subscriber base by 6.6 percent or 224,000 subscribers and IPTV subscribers by 8.6 percent of 106,000, enabling ...

?Jeff Kagan: Apple Needs New Visionary

Equities.com

He follows wireless, wire line, telecom, Internet, cable TV, IPTV, Cloud, Mobile Pay and communications technology. Email him at jeff@jeffKAGAN.com. His web ...

Time Warner Cable CEO Says Skinny Bundles the Future

DSL Reports

"While it's too early to draw quantitative conclusions from our New York City IPTV trial, the early feedback is encouraging," Rob Marcus said on the company's ...

Signagelive to demonstrate solutions for 'LG webOS for Signage' at ...

Digital Signage Today-12 hours ago

Signagelive's cloud-based digital signage network platform supports multiple content formats, including static images, 4k video, web pages, IPTV, multi-zoning ...

ICRA upgrades outlook on Siti Cable

TelevisionPost

The rating is constrained by high competitive intensity in the industry from other MSOs as well as from alternate technology platforms like DTH and IPTV, which ...

Review: the 4K TV wars — Sony against Panasonic

The Australian

Instead Panasonic says programs are available through HbbTV, or Hybrid Broadcasting Broadband TV. It supplements free-to-air content with IPTV services.