

May 19, 2016, Daily News

Thursday, 19 May 2016

Last Updated Thursday, 19 May 2016

Minerva certifies ADB's market-first IPTV wireless and 4K/UHD Set ...
Multichannel News

The new solution combines ADB's deep expertise in personal TV and broadband connectivity with Minerva's market leading IPTV platform to offer operators a ...

Logosoft adds two new channels to IPTV offer
Telecompaper (subscription)

Bosnian operator Logosoft has added two new channels for subscribers of its IPTV service, Super TV. City TV is the first sports channel in the country that ...

VITEC Solutions on Display at InfoComm 2016
Broadcasting & Cable

Based on VITEC's EZ TV platform, the IPTV Sports Venue Solution features low latency across all displays, synchronized playback, efficient scalability, and ...

Korean Hair Salon Introduces Smart Mirror
The Korea Bizwire

... entertain weary customers. The displays are expected to be upgraded with more features, such as smartphone mirroring and IPTV services in the near future.

Telstra and Nine sign five year Netball broadcast deal
EFTM

This is yet another shift to IPTV or Internet TV for sport, and while it's not the NRL or AFL it sure does help form a picture of the future for live sport. _MCA1624Li.

ADB partners with Minerva Networks
Advanced Television

The new solution combines ADB's expertise in personal TV and broadband connectivity with Minerva's IPTV platform to offer operators a wide variety of features ...

INTX 2016: The disappearing cable set top box
Cartt.ca (subscription)

In Canada, Rogers has promised to have an IPTV product in the market before the end of the year, Shaw is using Comcast's X1 platform to build out ...