

June 11, 2016, Daily News

Saturday, 11 June 2016

Last Updated Friday, 10 June 2016

Hawaiian Telcom to wind down FTTH, IPTV investments in 2017
FierceTelecom

A Hawaiian Telcom executive says that it will begin winding down its FTTH and IPTV investments in 2017 as it reaches the end of its aggressive buildout.

Judge orders interim ban on digital TV boxes over copyright claims ...
The Globe and Mail (subscription)

... Popcorn Time, and private IPTV Services, "which are private Internet servers that retransmit television broadcasts over the Internet, usually for a monthly fee."

Rostelecom provides IPTV for Astrakhan Park Inn hotel
Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian national operator Rostelecom has started providing its IPTV services in the Astrakhan-based Park Inn hotel, for 132 bedrooms. Its 'Prestige' package is ...

How to Make Multichannel Marketing Work
eMarketer

... media daily across mobile, desktops/laptops and other connected devices, such as an internet protocol TV (IPTV) or over-the-top (OTT) devices like a Roku.

Sacramento Kings choose digital signage solution for new arena
Digital Signage Today

"VITEC's EZ TV IPTV Venue Solution is a dynamic and comprehensive solution that allows stadiums and arenas to stream high-quality, live on-demand video ...

MDS Targets Retail VNOs With BSS Tools
Light Reading-13 hours ago

... branded digital service which supports their business, by contributing to the product development roadmap (fixed broadband, IPTV or even home security etc.) ...

OTE TV Hybrid service reaches 100000 subs
Telecompaper (subscription)

Greek operator Cosmote announced that its new OTE TV hybrid service that combines the benefits of both the satellite platform and IPTV is now used by over ...