

July 8, 2016, Daily News

Friday, 08 July 2016

Last Updated Friday, 08 July 2016

France: Over 43m on cable, DTH or IPTV

Advanced Television

Some 43.7 million people now receive TV by satellite, cable or IPTV in France, representing 75 per cent of the country's population. According to figures ...

Argentina's Cablevision to debut Flow IPTV service this year

Telecompaper (subscription)

Argentinian pay-TV provider Cablevision, a subsidiary of media conglomerate Clarin, is set to launch a 'TV everywhere' IPTV service called Flow later this year, ...

MTS launches IPTV services in Vologda

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian operator MTS has started sales of its IPTV services in the city of Vologda, reports Tdaily.ru. The offer contains around 130 TV channels, including 26 in ...

[EDITORIAL] Misguided decision, FTC should approve SKT-CJ deal

The Korea Herald

It would also help CJ Group focus on broadcast content production after disposing of its cable TV business, which has been losing ground to IPTV and satellite ...

Hungary digital TV subs up 16000 in May

Telecompaper (subscription)

In May, the number of subscriptions on wired networks (CATV and IPTV) rose by 9,000 to 2.258 million compared to April. Of these subscriptions, 880,491 were ...

Rovi lands major deal for pay TV guide at KDDI

Rethink Research (subscription)

The giant Japanese telco and cellco KDDI has selected Rovi's G-Guide HTML to help its IPTV subscribers discover content on KDDI's new Android TV-based ...

Orange outage in Poland

Broadband TV News

Orange is the incumbent telco in Poland and the country's leading provider of IPTV services. The outage was reportedly resolved at 02.00 local time on Friday, ...

...