

July 13, 2016, Daily News

Wednesday, 13 July 2016

Last Updated Wednesday, 13 July 2016

Subscriptions to cable, IPTV and satellite declined but revenues ...

Canada NewsWire (press release)

In 2015, Canadian cable, IPTV and satellite companies reported a slight decline in revenues of $11.8 million (0.1%) to $8.9 billion, while expenses increased by ...

CRTC shows cable, IPTV and satellite subscriptions declined in ...

MobileSyrup.com

The CRTC's data focuses on companies that offer cable, satellite and Internet Protocol television (IPTV), like Zazeen or Vmedia, which deliver television services ...

Private Punter: IPTV firm Amino's results make for good viewing

Cambridge News

Swavesey based Amino Technologies has this week delivered some solid and welcome interim results that appears to demonstrate that it is firmly back on track.

Hotel Internet Services Appoints Hospitality Sales Veteran Jeffrey ...

Hospitality Net

... Smith is credited with several impressive accomplishments, including the opening of new IPTV and HSIA markets. Smith's efforts were recognized by Quadriga ...

Greek telcos join forces

Broadband TV News

Broadband TV News notes Vodafone services in Greece currently include an IPTV platform named Vodafone TV. Meanwhile, Wind's offer does not at present ...

SK, CJ HelloVision likely in split process

The Korea Herald

The merger would have allowed SK Telecom to secure around 4.2 million subscribers from CJ HelloVision in addition to the some 3 million IPTV subscribers that ...

Verizon Labs to double headcount in India

Business Today

The Pai-led Verizon Labs (VL) has developed the company's interent offerings - FiOS Quantum TV and its OTT (Over The Top) Video as well as IPTV solutions.