

July 25, 2016, Daily News

Monday, 25 July 2016

Last Updated Sunday, 24 July 2016

Rogers plans IPTV launch in wake of disappointing Q2

Rapid TV News-12 hours ago

Going forward Rogers plans to enhance its TV offerings, including an improved legacy user interface, 4KTV and the launch of an IPTV service by the end of the ...

Kvartal TV channel gets transmission licence

Telecompaper (subscription)

It will also be distributed on IPTV and accessible on a number of devices. The new channel will be distributed using the BISS satellite encryption system, ...

TV connections in Montenegro up 8% to 178520

Telecompaper (subscription)

The overwhelming majority, 91.64 percent, opted to receive TV via the subscription-based distribution platforms. IPTV is still the main alternative distribution ...

Analyst Rating Update: Universal Electronics Inc. (NASDAQ:UEIC)

Markets Daily

... primarily to subscription broadcasting providers (cable, satellite and IPTV), original equipment manufacturers (OEMs), retailers, and private label customers; ...

Si.mobil Q2 revenues dip 2.3%

Telecompaper (subscription)

... with churn at 1.6 percent. The number of wireline subscribers grew 15.8 percent on a pro forma basis to 170,700, thanks to demand for broadband and IPTV ...

Almost 40% of Dutch TVs have internet access

Telecompaper (subscription)

Just over half of households said they had digital cable, 15 percent IPTV, 9 percent over fibre, 7 percent on DTT and 4 percent with satellite. While these are ...

IPTV grows in Moscow

Broadband TV News-13 hours ago

IPTV is now the most profitable pay-TV segment in Moscow, with ARPU standing at R229 (€3.27), compared to an average of R186 for the city's pay-TV market.

Traditional TV Subscriptions Keep Growing in Europe

eMarketer

Digital cable, pay IPTV, pay satellite and pay digital terrestrial television (DTT) services will account for over half of all TV subscriptions in Western Europe in ...