

Sept. 2, 2016, Daily News

Friday, 02 September 2016

Last Updated Friday, 02 September 2016

Ericsson, Cisco partner for Caribbean IPTV backbone

Rapid TV News

Ericsson and Cisco will supply and install IP networks for Cable & Wireless Communications in three Caribbean markets, serving as backbone for IPTV services.

Welcome to FierceCable's 2016 IBC Preview Issue

FierceCable

IPTV platforms have also widely signed Netflix, indicating that they are focused on the aggregation and delivery of content, rather than in owning it themselves.

Ericsson integrates MediaFirst multiscreen platform with RDK

FierceCable

"Ericsson is a proven IPTV market leader whom we are proud to collaborate with and look forward to scaling this integration across Ericsson's global customer ...

Abox42 announces new UHD smart STBs

Broadband TV News

All major streaming formats for IPTV, OTT and DVB are supported. On the DRM/Software-CAS side the M40 is ready for Verimatrix VCAS, Marlin, Playready, ...

Telecom Stock Roundup: Verizon Updates 5G Specifications, AT&T ...

Yahoo Finance

This service is supposedly the world's first fully wireless IPTV (Internet Protocol television) service with Wireless 4K Whole Home PVR from Fibe TV.

Sigma and Telechips Collaborate on Next Generation Set-Top Box ...

Yahoo Finance

Sigma, a long-time leader in the IPTV set-top box SoC market, is providing foundational technology in 4KTV video processing with full HDR support, carrier-class ...

We're more like Spotify than Netflix, says Iflix boss as OTT player ...

Mumbrella Asia

... in common except a certain socio economic level, smart phone penetration, lack of paid-TV options, and sufficient infrastructure to support IPTV, he said.