

Oct. 6, 2016, Daily News

Wednesday, 05 October 2016

Last Updated Thursday, 06 October 2016

Cable firms call for tougher sanctions on product bundling

Korea Times

"Mobile carriers ? such as SK Telecom ? are increasing their market share by bundling such services as mobile and internet protocol television (IPTV), posing ...

Beltelecom modifies pay-TV offer, upgrades network

Telecompaper (subscription)

Belarusian national operator Beltelecom has modified its IPTV and DVB-T offers. Five Russian TV channels are on offer under beta. Multi-Serial TV has replaced ...

A Cord-Cutting Battle in Canada is Brewing Between a Telecom ...

Motherboard

In Canada, it's completely legal for a small cable or IPTV company, which sends content over the internet to set-top boxes, to "retransmit" some TV channels sent ...

Logosoft adds two channels to IPTV service

Telecompaper (subscription)

Bosnian operator Logosoft has added two new channels to its IPTV service. Super TV subscribers can now watch the Sevdah TV and TNT Kids channels within ...

60 Seconds With... Huawei Director of Video Services ME Wang Bin

IPTV News

Wang Bin: Huawei wants to cooperate with our customer telcos to make IPTV success. We also want to help all of the players into video transforming by ...

Smart Displays Shift to Samsung's Tizen OS for Digital Signage

Samsung Business Insights (blog)

Like previous versions, the new Tizen-powered Smart Signage Platform also supports full 1080p HD, 30 frames-per-second video and IPTV streaming.

Foxtel - navigating the changing world of TV

AdNews

Presto will be rolled into its newly revamped Foxtel Play platform, which now offers lower cost access to Foxtel channels through IPTV. It's also decided to add ...

