

Oct. 28, 2016, Daily News

Friday, 28 October 2016

Last Updated Friday, 28 October 2016

Telefonica Pay-TV Clients Down in Spain, But Revenues Up

Yahoo TV (blog)

In Latin America, Telefonica's IPTV contracts grew 39% year-on-year as the company pushes its data services. Pay-TV contracts in Spanish-speaking America ...

French Canal+ subscriber numbers revealed

Broadband TV News

On cable and IPTV orange has the most subscribers with 530,000, followed by Free (490,000), SFR (250,000), Numéricable (220,000) and Bouygues (160,000)

Movistar Plus nears 4m subs

Advanced Television

... the start of La Liga in September and the migration of 54,000 subscribers from satellite (the former Digital Plus) to IPTV distribution (with a net gain of 10,000).

Free adds Canal+ multiscreen offering to bundle

DigitalTVEurope.net

TV by Canal Panorama was launched by Canal+ to enable IPTV service providers to bundle Canal+ channels with their multi-play packages as part of a root ...

63000 new TV customers for BT in Q2

Rapid TV News

UK incumbent telco BT has expressed satisfaction with its half-year results for 2016, with consumer revenue was up 11% and broadband and TV revenue up ...

AT&T Down! AT&T outage causing users unable to make or receive ...

Techworm

Television service is available through the U-verse brand, which is delivered over the internet (IPTV). AT&T has near-national wireless coverage. Internet and ...

AT&T and Time Warner deal is about advertising as well as ...

Videonet

... the cord-cutting that has eaten into the cable sector, losing a combined 132,000 subscribers across its DIRECTV (satellite) and U-verse (IPTV) platforms in the ...