

Oct. 5 2006 Daily News

Thursday, 05 October 2006

Tech terms confuse Brits

Web User - London,UK

While Brits are growing more tech-savvy, they still can't explain what terms like RSS, Video on Demand and IPTV mean, according to a new survey. ...

Aggregator launches TV over broadband(TVoBB) service

Indiantelevision.com - Andheri,Mumbai,India

... "In order to be successful and provide consumers with exciting services they are prepared to pay for, new TV delivery platforms such as IPTV and TVoBB need ...

IMAKE Rolls Out OpenVision 4.1 Session Resource Manager for IPTV ...

TMCnet - USA

... has introduced the OpenVision 4.1 Session Resource Manager, offering open session resource management solutions for VOD and IPTV (News - Alert). ...

Japanese TV portal service and trials to use Marlin technology

Digital Media Asia - Mumbai,MH,Asia

... companies - Hitachi, Panasonic, Sharp, Sony and Toshiba - recently announced a proof of concept trial for TV portal services using Marlin IPTV-ES as the ...

It's already mainstream in some global markets

Media Life Magazine - USA

... become the world's No. 2 IPTV market by 2011, trailing only China with 3.429 million subscribers. The worldwide growth in revenue ...

IPTV Revenues Will Accelerate to $12 Billion by 2011

IPTV News (press release) - UK

IPTV Revenues Will Accelerate to $12 Billion by 2011 October 3, 2006 - Rapid growth will result in 36 million IPTV homes by 2011 - or around seven times as ...

HomePlug Proponents Argue For Simplicity

PC Magazine - USA

... As BPL and other broadband systems gain momentum, services such as VoIP, digital home security, and IPTV can also expect increased adoption. ...