

Nov. 4, 2016, Daily News

Friday, 04 November 2016

Last Updated Friday, 04 November 2016

IPTV surges ahead in SpainBroadband TV NewsTelefonica Spain's IPTV sector grew by close to one million subscribers in the year to March 31, while the number of DTH viewers fell by nearly 500,000 over the ... Telcos to account for over half of Western Europe, Lat Am pay TVDigitalTVEurope.netIn terms of how telcos are delivering pay TV, IPTV will remain the dominant platform, accounting for 65% of all the telco's subs. The market share gains are being ...

Frontier Expands Its IPTV Service in South CarolinaDSL ReportsFrontier says the company has dramatically expanded the availability of its "Vantage" IPTV platform in South Carolina. According to comments made to Fierce ...

BCE bolstered by strong growth of wireless subscribersThe Globe and MailBut one of the rare disappointments in the results was the addition of only 36,300 subscribers to Fibe TV, Bell's internet protocol television (IPTV) platform, along ...Swiss cable grows with telephony and internetBroadband TV NewsWhile TV cable companies lost TV subscribers, competitor Swisscom continued to gain new customers for its IPTV platform Swisscom TV: The customer figure ... Cincinnati Bell is considering an OTT video service partnership with ...FierceTelecomMeanwhile, CenturyLink began to trial the OTT service outside of its Prism IPTV footprint in four markets. Besides offering OTT video, Cincinnati Bell is seeing an ...KT SkyLife brings Android platform into UHD broadcastingKorea TimesThe move came amid the growing popularity of internet-based media platforms with the rise of internet protocol television (IPTV). "The new Android-based ...