

Jan. 27, 2017, Daily News

Friday, 27 January 2017

Last Updated Friday, 27 January 2017

Rogers reports $9M net loss in fourth quarter after break from IPTV ...

Toronto Star

The Toronto-based company ditched its IPTV project to adopt Comcast's platform for the next generation of cable TV delivery systems. (Darren Calabrese / THE ...

Rogers Embraces 'Comcast North' Strategy

Light Reading

The moves come about a month after Rogers dumped its fledgling IPTV product and signed a long-term deal with Comcast to deploy X1, joining fellow Canadian ...

Sky moves beyond the dish with IPTV plans

DigitalTVEurope.net

Sky_Q Sky has unveiled plans to launch Sky TV over broadband in the UK, marking the first time it will offer its full television offering without the need for a ...

MatrixStream intros OTT platform for IPTV operators

Rapid TV News

... designed to allow pay-TV operators to launch skinny channel bundles and subscription video-on-demand (SVOD) to complement existing IPTV offerings, or to ...

KPN adds 7-day catch-up archive to IPTV service

Telecompaper (subscription)

KPN has added a seven-day catch-up option for its IPTV customers. The free offer is also available at its subsidiaries Telfort and XS4All. Programmes from 132 ...

Montenegro's pay TV penetration rate rises to 97.23% at end-Dec

SeeNews-11 hours ago

... and TV programmes to end-users in Montenegro was DTH, with a market share of 35.57%, followed by IPTV and cable with 31.36% and 29.12%, respectively.

?Kagan: Will Verizon Soon Have a Competitor to AT&T's DirecTV?

Equities.com

Customers are moving away from traditional cable TV to new competitors including IPTV, satellite TV, mobile TV and more. AT&T Uverse, DirecTV, Verizon FiOS, ...