

Jan. 28, 2017, Daily News

Saturday, 28 January 2017

Sky to take UK IPTV plans into other EU markets

DigitalTVEurope.net

Following its initial debut in the UK, Sky plans offer internet-delivered versions of its TV service in its other European markets as part of broader growth plans.

Not guilty plea in landmark Kodi box trial

BBC News

Kieron Sharp, director general of the Federation Against Copyright Theft (Fact) said: "Set-top and IPTV boxes which are 'cracked' or altered with software to ...

Inca, Verimatrix Take Video Decoding to the Edge

Light Reading

"Historically IPTV operators have not had a good technical solution to affordably deliver Verimatrix encrypted services to wholesale partners, MDUs, schools and ...

MatrixStream intros MatrixCloud OTT platform

Telecompaper (subscription)

South African company MatrixStream introduced the MatrixCloud OTT platform for IPTV operators. Operators can use it to launch skinny channel bundles and ...

Rogers to hire former Telus CEO as Q4 profits surpass expectations

ITBusiness.ca

In terms of announcements, Rogers has revealed a long-term agreement with Comcast to bring X1 IPTV to its customers, which is expected to happen in early ...

Regulator says IPTV is only pay-TV growth driver in Brazil

Rapid TV News

The declining Brazilian pay-TV market in 2016 was only buoyed up by growing fibre accesses and increasing IPTV subscriptions. anatel dados According to ...

BT's fiscal third quarter sales driven up 32% by EE

TeleGeography

... up from 9.193 million at the end of September, while IPTV accesses also continued to rise, reaching 1.736 million at year's end (up 3.1% quarter-on-quarter).