

Feb 1, 2017, Daily News

Wednesday, 01 February 2017

Last Updated Thursday, 02 February 2017

The Broadcasting Industry and Manufacture of Decoders in South ...

Yahoo Finance

Although the IPTV market is still small it has been identified as a potential area of expansion by Telecoms operators, Telkom and Vodacom. However, plans to ...

Cosmote TV passes half million milestone

DigitalTVEurope.net

The milestone follows a year of development of its satellite and IPTV service for the operator. OTE combined its satellite and IPTV activities under the Cosmote ...

Telekom Austria sees TV progress

DigitalTVEurope.net

Telekom Austria expanded its IPTV universe with the acquisition of Altant Telekom in Belarus. The operator has both IPTV and cable subscribers and offers ...

Czech O2 gains TV customers

Broadband TV News

The Czech incumbent's O2 TV service ended 2016 with 221,000 IPTV and OTT subscribers, or 6.1% more than a year earlier. At the same time, ...

Comcast's Xfinity TV app for Roku starts beta testing

Engadget

Customers should expect their full in-home cable experience, just delivered over Comcast's "locally managed network" as IPTV instead of the traditional QAM ...

TRAI recommends shutting down of analog transmission by 2023

The New Indian Express

While a large number of TV channels are available to the consumers through various delivery platforms such as DTH, Cable TV, IPTV, HITS etc, TRAI said, the ...

Cartoon Network and Boomerang Launch on Fetch TV

Animation World Network (press release) (registration) (blog)

... the launch of Cartoon Network and Boomerang on Fetch TV. Turner's two global flagship children channels will be available from January on the IPTV service.