

Feb. 10, 2017, Daily News

Friday, 10 February 2017

Last Updated Saturday, 11 February 2017

AIS unveils Google Chromecast, challenging TrueVisions

Bangkok Post

The move by AIS is set to change the landscape of mobile competition, revive Internet Protocol television (IPTV) and pose a new challenge to other ...

Cable, IPTV drive Hungarian digital growth

Broadband TV News

Based on data from leading market players, the total number of cable and IPTV homes in December 2016 amounted to 2,303,690, of which 1,461,083 were ...

Spain: Premier League pirate raid success

Advanced Television

Y-Internet sold illegal IPTV service packages with annual contracts to the large foreign population in the Málaga region, including hotels, pubs, neighbourhoods ...

Keepixo Pairs with Divitel for 360-degree Live Stream of Bavarian ...

PR Newswire (press release)

Keepixo, a leading provider of software head-end products for IPTV and OTT, recently partnered with Divitel, a world-class systems integrator for video delivery, ...

Interra Systems CABSAT 2017 Exhibitor Preview

Broadcasting & Cable

As operators in the global broadcast, cable, telco, satellite, IPTV, over-the-top (OTT), and post-production markets deliver a growing amount of high-quality video ...

CenturyLink to launch OTT TV service in Q2

Telecompaper (subscription)

In the meantime, CenturyLink is "deemphasizing" Prism TV, its IPTV service powered by the Ericsson Mediaroom platform, amid a sharp rise in content costs in ...

CenturyLink 'deemphasizing' Prism, still may license DirecTV Now ...

FierceCable

CenturyLink is experiencing losses with its Prism IPTV product and plans to replace it with OTT service in the second quarter. "Our [OTT] trial is getting really ...