

Feb. 23, 2017, Daily News

Thursday, 23 February 2017

Last Updated Thursday, 23 February 2017

Telefonica SA (ADR) (NYSE:TEF) is to offer free 4K-STB to all ...
Benchmark Monitor

In September, TiVo announced its roll-out in Spain with the new generation of Vodafone IPTV set tops. Meanwhile, Telefonica has agreed to sell up to a 40% ...

TF1 threatens to withdraw from IPTV platforms

Broadband TV News

A carriage fee dispute looms in France as TF1 threatens to withdraw channels from IPTV platforms. French private broadcaster TF1 said it has been negotiating ...

Belden: Profiting Off IT In 2017

Seeking Alpha

The Broadcast segment provides products for television broadcast, cable, satellite, and IPTV businesses. The Enterprise Connectivity Solutions segment offers ...

Enterprise IPTV and digital signage ISE 2017

CSO Australia-3 hours ago

Australian IPTV and Digital Signage solutions specialists CombiTel were at the event showcasing their Omniscreen Pilot. The Australian developed enterprise ...

Edgware leads 3 markets in VoD technology provision

Advanced Television-12 hours ago

In its latest IPTV Market Leader Report, Kagan Research, part of S&P Global Market Intelligence, has named Edgware as the VoD server software market ...

Verizon: FiOS Adult Content Displays Will Be Opt-In

Broadcasting & Cable

... (according to a copy supplied by NCOSE), says that "in early 2017, the display of adult content for new customers of FiOS IPTV will be automatically disabled.

China Telecom, ZTE see success with Combo PON trial

Telecompaper (subscription)

The solution also leverages its XG-PON smart gateway to provide a 1,000Mbps connection speed, premium voice, 4K IPTV and smart home services to users.

