

March 7, 2017, Daily News

Tuesday, 07 March 2017

APAC: Impressive pay-TV growth forecast

Advanced Television

IPTV operators China Telecom (plus 24.39 million) and BesTV (plus 12.19 million) will gain the most pay-TV subscribers over the same period, followed by ...

Set-top box seller Malcolm Mayes ordered to pay £250000

BBC News

Malcolm Mayes, from Hartlepool, admitted breaching the Copyright, Designs & Patents Act by advertising and selling adapted IPTV boxes. The 65-year-old must ...

Your Kodi box could about to be BANNED after this new review

Kent Live

In a post about its consultation about Kodi Boxes, the IPO said: "Internet Protocol Television (IPTV) boxes (also known as set-top boxes, Android TV boxes or ...

NovTel introduces IPTV services

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian regional operator ISP Nov-Tel has introduced to its customers a new IPTV service. The offer contains 99 TV-channels, including six HDTV-channels.

'Best deal in town': Rogers steeply discounts high-speed broadband ...

Financial Post

Rogers spent years developing its own IPTV platform, but took a $484-million hit when it abandoned the plans in favour of using Comcast's platform. Western ...

IP, VOD central for Spanish connected homes

Rapid TV News

IPTV and video-on-demand (VOD) are driving convergence towards a new ... fibra iptv While convergent packages have been commercialised by Spanish telcos ...

Why Is Verizon Offering Prepaid Fios?

Light Reading

The aggressive push for new subscribers may be Verizon's way of laying the groundwork for its next-generation Fios IPTV service. The more customers the telco ...